Οι Αρχαίοι έλληνες έπιναν μύρα και πήγαιναν σε πάρτυ;
Spelling and Standardisation
in Modern Greek

Thursday, 8th May 4.30 - 8.30 pm

Europe House, 32 Smith Square, London SW1P 3EU

The European Commission Representation in the UK in partnership with the University of Patras, Greece, and the Education Office of the Greek Embassy in London cordially invites you to a lecture and workshop on spelling and standardisation in Modern Greek by Anna Iordanidou, Professor of Linguistics at the University of Patras.

Anna Iordanidou will discuss the orthographic prescriptions of the school grammar (based on the work of Triandaphyllidis), which sought to establish a) an historic orthography that is easy to teach and memorize without the need for recourse to ancient Greek cognates of the words in question, and b) a simplified orthography for the words that have been introduced to Modern Greek at a later stage through the medium of a foreign language.

After the discussion, come and try a glass of wine specially commissioned for the Greek presidency, courtesy of the Greek Embassy in London, accompanied by Greek delicacies.

The event is open to everyone with knowledge of Modern Greek but is mainly aimed at teachers of Greek as a foreign language or mother tongue. Places are free but booking is mandatory. Secure your place today by sending an email to Agnieszka.piela@ext.ec.europa.eu

This event is presented in association with the Hellenic Foundation for Culture, UK.
