

An educational workshop: 'A journey in an ancient boat' from the Greek Embassy Education Office and the Hellenic Centre In the Hellenic Centre on Saturday 19 May 3pm to 5pm

An educational workshop in Greek for children 5-12 years old. A story where heroes are selected art objects from the A. G. Leventis Gallery at the British Museum, an interactive play, construction of ceramic objects with the group Ceramists Traces and educational leaflets full of exciting information will introduce our young friends to the world of ancient ceramics.

The cultural event is addressed to children of reception and primary school (5- 12 years old) and includes: a) Narration of a story, in which heroes are selected art objects from A.G. Leventis Gallery, b) Theatrical interactive play, c) Becoming little ceramists (Workshop: play and construction of ceramic art objects inspired by the A.G. Leventis Gallery with the Group 'Ceramists Traces'), d) Educational leaflet with questions and plays and e) Fairytale tour in A.G. Leventis Gallery so that children meet the heroes of the story (will take place only on Sunday at the British Museum).

The workshop is inspired by the work of writer-educator Mania Douka and is part of a collaboration project between the Greek Ministry of Education, Research and Religious Affairs and the Cyprus Ministry of Education and Culture.

Ticket holders will be able to attend a fairytale tour to the A G Leventis Gallery at the British Museum on Sunday 20 May at 11am.

Tickets for adults and children £5; adults admitted only if accompanying children. Bookings: 020 7487 5060 or <https://hcchildrensworkshop.eventbrite.co.uk>, due to limited availability advanced booking is recommended.

Organised by the Hellenic Centre, under the auspices of the Education Office, Embassy of Greece in London.
